

1 Cor. 5

Clearing the Assembly of Leaven

Number Three in a series on the holiness of Christian fellowship

R. A. Huebner

Table of Contents

Part A: Expository Notes on 1 Cor. 5	1
Introduction	1
Sin Worse than the Gentiles (1 Cor. 5:1, 2)	5
The Apostle Acting with the Assembly to Remove the Evil (1 Cor. 5:3-5)	6
The Toleration of a Little Leaven Leavens the Assembly and does not Answer to the Unleavened position in Christ (1 Cor. 5: 6, 7a)	12
Our Feast of Unleavened Bread Must be Free from Leaven (1 Cor. 5:7b, 8)	26
The Leaven of the World not to be Tolerated in a Professed Christian in the Assembly, or at Our Own Meal (1 Cor. 5:9-11)	28
The Assembly is Responsible to Judge Those that are Within (1 Cor. 5: 12, 13)	37
Part B: Matters Connected with 1 Cor. 5	42
1 Corinthians and Evil Doctrine	42
Do Any OT Scriptures Establish a Basis for Relatives to Act Otherwise?	46
What Are the Results of Refusing to Purge Leaven?	48
What Should be Our Attitude About Discipline?	51
Various Considerations	59
Restoration	64
Conclusion: The State of those Who do not Imbibe but also do not Separate	67
Appendix 1: Matt. 18:20	68
Appendix 2: The Open Brethren View of Leaven Leavening the Lump	70